A Recounty Ordered.

A Recount Ordered.

The City Democratic Committee has ordered a recount of the vote in last Tuesday's primary, ha far as the candidates for the Legislature are concerned. The recount, which takes place to-morrow night, was ordered upon the demand of W. H. L. Kent, who received just nine votes less than W. E. Barrett, who received the highest number, 301. Mr. Barrett strongly objected to the recount, claiming that Mr. Kent had not given sufficient reasons for his demand. Mr. Kent does not accuse the judges of fraud, but says that errors were made in all four wards.

reception than which has been accorded Hon. Joseph E. Willard, who is engaged in canvassing the Northern Neck. It is conceded even by those who are opposed to him that he is daily growing in strength in this entire section.

At Warsaw last night he was given a most flattering reception by a large crowd, among which were many ladies, a number driving eight and ten miles to hear him. Captain Willard was introduced by Mr. Joseph W. Chinn, the Democratic county chairman, and for an hour or more the speaker was given the closest and most thoughtful attention. After the speaking he was given a personal introduction to many of the laddes and voters, and many were the assurances of loyal support and

LETTER TO A. B. GUIGON.
Dear Sir: What would be the result of solling poor paint with this guarantee?
"If you have any fault to find with this paint, either now in putting it on, or hereafter in the wear, tell your dealer about it.
"We authorize him to do what is right at our expense."
That means pay damages, don't it?

as we are the maker, we know all about
